

International Registry Advisory Board

Provides advice to the Registrar on matters relating to the needs of users in connection with the operations of the Registry.

As the practice group leader of the Aviation Group at Oklahoma City-based McAfee & Taft, Scott McCreary oversees one of the largest and most experienced FAA aircraft title and financing legal teams in the United States. He represents local, national and international clients in connection with matters involving the buying, selling, leasing and financing of aircraft and well as the ownership and operation of business jets. His practice is primarily focused on matters relating to the Cape Town Convention, the Federal Aviation Act, and the FAA Aircraft Registry, and well as escrowing funds and documents for aircraft transactions.

In addition to being a frequent speaker at aviation conferences in the United States and abroad, Scott is also actively involved in advisory and leadership roles at leading industry organizations. He currently serves as:

- Member of the board of directors of the National Aircraft Finance Association and member of NAFA's Regulatory Committee
- Member of the National Business Aviation Association's Tax Committee
- Member and past Vice Chair/Chair of the National Business Aviation Association's Regulatory Industry Advisory Group
- Member of the executive committee of the Aviation Working Group's Legal Advisory Panel (LAP)
- Member of the International Registry Advisory Board (IRAB)

